

AN INVITATION TO JOINT VENTURE WITH 3-TIME JVX LIVE SHARK

NANCY JUETTEN

WWW.PARTNERWITHNANCY.COM

Since 2001, I have run a successful, established lifestyle business that serves professional service providers, experts, authors, and speakers who want to get known and get paid as they make a big impact on their own best terms.

People who know me well would be more likely to describe me as a collaborative dolphin than a shark. My aim is to love my business and love my life because one without the other isn't good enough.

While other JV partners may focus on scaling up and achieving big time leverage, my business takes a boutique-style approach.

Lasting relationships with long-term referral and joint venture partners are preferred over "hit it and quit it" transactions.

If that feels like music to your ears, it's nice to meet you!

My favorite partners have the enthusiasm to go ALL IN by:

- Sending one solo email to their entire list of opt in subscribers. Responsive lists of 3,500 or more make for the most equitable swaps.
- Making enthusiastic mentions in their “round up” style ezines and “Resending to Unopens.”
- Using social media to fuel interest and participation.
- Adding their own ‘secret sauce’ to the mix.
- Offering complimentary expertise that adds value to my tribe so I can reciprocate in an equally ALL IN kind of way.

What Nancy Juetten Can Offer to You:

- Nancy offers a 10-year solid track record of big support to big partners.
- Nancy nurtures a loyal, responsive 5-figure email list that grows bigger every day. Her Media One Sheet Done for You offer can be a recommended resource to clients who opt out of your bigger invitations. She is a quality guest expert who can add value for your mastermind clients, Facebook groups, podcasts, YouTube expert interview series, upcoming summits, or perfectly aligned gift giveaways.
